GLENDALÉ MAYOR JERRY WEIERS HIGHLIGHTS CITY'S POLICE EXPLORER PROGRAM ON "GLENDALÉ TODAY" Also Discusses Careers in Law Enforcement

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Mayor Jerry Weiers profiles a city initiative that helps young people explore a career in law enforcement in his new edition of the TV show "Glendale Today". Guests on the show include Glendale Sergeant Frank Sankhagowit and Detective Dan Mooney, who discuss the history and overview of the program and how the Explorers serve the community. Glendale Police Explorer Post 2469 volunteered almost 6700 hours last year!

Viewers also get to hear from two young Explorers, Anthony Gonzalez and Estrellita Salas, who share how they got involved with the program and what they are learning about the daily life of a police officer. Hands-on experiences include patrol ride-alongs, swat scenarios, collecting fingerprints and preserving evidence and radio communications. Here's a sneak peek at the show.

The show begins airing September 11 at 8 p.m. "Glendale Today" is produced by staff from the city-owned TV station Glendale 11. The show will air daily on Glendale 11 as well as online via the city's video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video and exclusive segments can be found on the city's YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11.
